Numb. 688

Thursday, June 29 1704

From the Amsterdam Gazette, dated July 1.

Toulon, June 12.

Yesterday the Count de Thoulouze came into this Port with 29 Men of War. As soon as the Ships that are fitting out here are in a Condition to joyn him 'tis said the Count will put to Sea agen to seek the Enemy. He has advanc'd 100000 Crowns of his own Money to hasten the fitting out of the Ships that are to joyn him, and has taken up 100000 Pieces of Eight on Credit at Interest for the same Service. The Enemies Fleet lyes off the Islands of Hieres. One of their Men of War, in her Way to or from Villa France, was attack'd in a Calm off Antibes by 3 of our Gallies; but soon after the Fight began the Wind freshen'd, and then our Gallies having the Disadvantage retir'd; they lost 40 or 50 Men in the Action, and suffer'd great Damage in their Hulls and Rigging; but the Enemies Ship receiv'd considerable Damage likewise.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated July 1.

Genoa, June 14. We have a Report that the 5th Instant the Confederate Fleet landed some Men on the Islands Hieres, who meeting no Opposition spoil'd the Salt Works there.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated June 26.

Geneva, June 17. Letters from Nimes advise, that 2 Deputies sent by Roland to the Marshal de Villars had agreed to submit, and the Marshal on his Part promis'd to set at Liberty all that are in Prison or in the Gallies on account of their Religion; But these Deputies, as they were returning to Roland under a Guard of some of the Marshal de Villars's Men, fell into an Ambush of 60 Men of the Party of the Camisars commanded by Ravanel, yet with difficulty and loss escap'd, and went back again to Nimes. That Roland has since sent Word to the Marshal de Villars, that there were but 40 Camisars, who would be content with the Treaty his Deputies had concluded, that all the rest demanded Liberty of Conscience, and that he had promis'd to obtain that Liberty for 20000 Persons whom he could not abandon. That thereupon the Marshal de Villars declar'd the 7th Instant that the Accomodation with the Camisars was broken off; that he march'd the same day with some of his Troops and burnt several Villages about Anduze; but return'd agen the 18th upon the receipt of a Courier from Court; And that it was thought the Court had order'd him to march down towards the Port of Cete, where it was apprehended the Confederate Fleet might make a Descent in favour of the Camisars.

Lions, June 13. They write from Nimes the 9th that Roland had had a Conference with the Marshal de Villars at Anduze; But the Marshal having refus'd part of his Demands, particularly that the Protestants should have their Churches as formerly and the free Exercise of their Religion, the Hostages on both sides were return'd, and the Body commanded by Roland, which was come within 2 Leagues of Anduze march'd back up into the Mountains. 'Tis said those Camisars have kill'd one of the Intendant's Subdelegates.

In Monday's Courant, was insert'd a Letter from Nimes dated June 13. giving an Account that Cavalier was seiz'd and put under Confinement by Order of the Marshal de Villars. The following Letter from the same Place of a later date gives a different Account of him.

Nimes, June 16. The 14th Cavalier Supp'd in this Town with the Marshal de Villars and several Persons of Quality, and 'tis certain he has a Brevet for Colonel. As for the Camisars, Endeavours are us'd to prevail with them to lay down their Arms by several Gentlemen that are sent to them. But they will hear of no Accomodation unless Liberty of Conscience for the whole Country be made an Article of it. Last Night they burnt 4 or 5 Houses belonging to Catholics at Vic.

From the Rotterdam Gazette, dated July 3.

Ratisbon, June 19. General Herbeville, who with 3500 Imperialists lately laid Siege to Kelheim, having Intelligence that a Superior Number of Bavarians was marching to relieve the Place, thought best to draw off and retire to Hemmau; which he did with so much haste that he caus'd 2 Pieces of Cannon and some Ammunition that it would have cost some time to have carried off, to be thrown into the River. The Peasants of Tirol, in number 4000 Men, assist'd by 1000 Imperial Soldiers, have taken the Towns of Schongau on the Lech, and Weilheim on the Ammer, and threaten Landsperg. They have put a large Tract of Country under Contribution, and sent all their Booty into Tirol; so that the City of Munick is fill'd with People that fly thither from the Country with their Effects. Upon this Alarm the Inhabitants of Munick are fallen to work to repair and augment the Fortifications of their City. Some Bavarian Troops are marching in order to stop the Progress of the said Peasants of Tirol and recover from them the Places they have taken.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated July 3.

Paris, June 27. The 22d Monsieur de Legal, Lieutenant General, arriv'd Post at Versailles, with Letters from the Elector of Bavaria for the King, in which he acquainted his Majesty that the Allies were making great Preparations to invade his Country; but that he believ'd himself to be in a Condition to frustrate their Designs; and that he had given Order for all his Subjects from 18 to 50 Years of Age to take Arms to help to defend their Country. Yet he desir'd a new Reinforcement of Troops. Hereupon the King has sent Order to the Marshals de Villeroy and Tallard, to pass the Rhine with all Expedition and march Succours to Bavaria. Monsieur de Legal, who designs to be present at this Passage of the Rhine, went Post yesterday for Landau, after having had several Conferences with the King. According to our last Advices from Alsace, the Army commanded by the Count de Coignies is at Seltz, that under the Marshal de Tallard at Luterbourg, and that led by the Marshal de Villars at Rhorbach and Langen Candel between Landau and Luterbourg.
